

DAD'S ARMY

The classic BBC TV comedy series of the Home Guard of Walmington-on-Sea who battle daily against the Germans and local ARP Warden Hodges, comes to the stage complete with all the well-loved characters: "stupid boy" Pike, "Don't panic, don't panic" Jonesey, "Doomed, we're all doomed!" Fraser, "May I be excused, sir?" Godfrey, and all under the command of the redoubtable Captain Mainwaring and his effacing deputy Sergeant Wilson.

Director and Production Manager Wanted for Dad's Army (2026)
Whangarei Theatre Company is seeking expressions of interest for a Director and Production Manager to lead our 2026 production of the beloved British comedy Dad's Army. Based on the classic BBC television series, this stage adaptation captures all the wit, charm, and nostalgia of the original — full of eccentric characters, quick humour, and heart-warming camaraderie. We're looking for creative, organised, and enthusiastic individuals to bring this timeless story to life for Whangārei audiences.

The Director will guide the artistic vision of the show, working with our talented local cast and crew to create an engaging and entertaining production. The Production Manager will oversee the logistics and coordination that make it all possible — ensuring rehearsals, set builds, costumes, and performances run smoothly. If you have a passion for theatre, enjoy working collaboratively, and are ready to take on an exciting leadership role, we'd love to hear from you.
